Name and contact information of your employer

Do you receive or have you claimed compensation or pension for the period of illness from abroad?

- No Yes; please indicate the pension/compensation and the payer.

9. Information that affects the amount of the sickness allowance

i The sickness allowance is calculated on the basis of your annual income. Annual income means your incomes during a period of 12 calendar months. This period is called the reference period. There is, however, a 1 month gap between the start of the allowance period and the reference period, and the income during this month is not taken into account.

Kela receives information on incomes from the national incomes register, the pension providers and the benefit payers. We ask for further information on your incomes on this form.

Read more at www.kela.fi/sickness-allowance-amount-and-payment

While you are receiving the allowance, are you also receiving an informal caregiver fee or a family caregiver fee?

- No Yes; for the time being.
 Yes; the payment will continue until _____.

The annual income that the sickness allowance is based on may be calculated on the basis of the income for the last three calendar months of the reference period. One requirement is that the income for the last three calendar months, multiplied by four, must be at least 20% higher than the annual income calculated on the basis of the full 12 calendar months. A further requirement is that you during the reference period have

- | | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> attained vocational qualifications and taken a degree | <input type="checkbox"/> performed military or alternative civilian service |
| <input type="checkbox"/> been partly or completely absent from the labour market after the period of allowances for parents because of caring for your under 3-year-old child at home | <input type="checkbox"/> been partly or completely absent from the labour market after the period of allowances for parents because of caring for your adopted child at home |

Further information on the work arrangements

Names and contact information of employers/companies. Also state your own address if you have not reported your address to the Digital and Population Data Services Agency.

i The allowance is determined on the basis of your actual loss of earnings. Submit the information about the loss of earnings that you have received from the employer to Kela or ask the employer to submit the information. Kela receives information about your earned income under the YEL (Self-Employed Persons' Pensions) and MYEL (Farmers' Pensions) Acts directly from the pension provider.

12. Enclosures

i A medical certificate A is often enough to prove a short period of illness, but at the latest after 60 days of illness you should ask your physician for a more detailed medical statement, i.e. medical certificate B.

For the continued payment of sickness allowance a statement from the occupational health service is needed when sickness allowance has been paid for 90 days. Request a statement from your occupational health physician. A statement is only needed as regards claimants who work in an employment relationship.

Notification from the employer filed via the e-service for employers, via the national incomes register or on form Y 17e (Employer's pay report), if the employer pays sick pay.

For the partial sickness allowance, you must provide information about the reduction in working hours from each of your employers if you hold more than one part-time job.
