Kela receives the information on your parents' taxable earnings and investment income for the most recently completed taxation from the Finnish Tax Administration. The student financial aid is granted according to the taxation data, unless you provide evidence that your parents' combined annual incomes have been reduced significantly (20% or more) after the most recently completed tax year.
If you are under 18 and living with your parent and your parent's new spouse, the income of your parent's new spouse is taken into account as well. A registered partner is equated to a spouse. When answering the questions about your parents' incomes, also take into account the incomes of your parent's new spouse.
My parent has a new spouse since
Have your parents' combined annual incomes been reduced (in total by at least 20%) after the most recently completed taxation?
No (decision based on taxation data)
Yes. State the reason for the change (for each parent separately):
Does your parent have income from abroad?
No Yes. Provide details about the income from abroad.

Section 2. Studies

Section 2. Studies
Students in vocational education: Certificate of studies from your school if you are applying for extension of financial aid beyond the normal duration of studies. No certificate is needed for studies for a basic vocational qualification or preparatory education for an upper secondary qualification pursued in Finland.
Students in a liberal adult education programme (e.g. folk high schools and sport institutes): Certificate of studies from your school if you are applying for extension of financial aid beyond the normal duration of studies.
Students in upper secondary school: Certificate showing how many courses and/or matriculation examination tests you will take if you are applying for financial aid for a 5th or subsequent year of study.
Students in basic education for adults: personal study plan confirmed by the educational institution, if you apply for student financial aid for a new period (e.g. for an additional period of time).
Section 3. Application
Students in higher education: documentation on the reasons for the delay in the studies if you are applying for an extension of the period of student financial aid. Submit a medical statement or equivalent documentation if your studies are delayed due to health reasons. Or documentation on your difficult circumstances or on your family member's illness, if this is the reason for the delay in your studies. Enclose an official certificate with the documentation, if possible.
Section 6. Financial aid during the summer months
Students in upper secondary school: Certificate on the duration and contents of the summer studies. The certificate can be issued by the educational institution that arranges the summer studies.
Section 7. Studying abroad or in the Åland Islands
Students in vocational education, upper secondary school, folk high school or sports institute: A certificate on the study period which you are pursuing abroad or in the Åland Islands. The certificate can be issued by your educational institution or the educational institution at your destination, or it can be in the form of an agreement concerning on-the-job training. The certificate must indicate the study exchange or on-the-job training period. Upper secondary school students must also submit a statement indicating how many courses or credits count towards completion of the Finnish upper secondary school curriculum.
Students pursuing a degree or studies abroad: Certificate on the study period in another country. The certificate can be issued by your educational institution or the educational institution at your destination. The certificate must indicate the study exchange or practical training period. A certificate on studies during the summer months need not be submitted.
Section 8. Applicant's own income
Details on income from abroad. Kela receives information on wage and benefit income from Finland from the national incomes register.
