Information obtained for the purpose of deciding the present matter may be used for other benefit-related matters, if so required under law. Conversely, any information obtained within the context of another benefit may be used to decide the present matter.

Please contact Kela for more information about which outside sources we may access to obtain additional information about your circumstances and to whom we may provide such information.

Working while unemployed

You can earn up to €300 per month or €279 per 4 weeks without it affecting your unemployment benefit. Kela obtains salary information from the national incomes register.

Activity agreed with the Employment and Economic Development Office

Such activities agreed on include:

- labour market training, self-motivated study, job search coaching or career counselling, job try-out, rehabilitative work activity, and self-motivated study by an immigrant

Periods of absence (for reasons other than training or education)

Payment of a benefit during a period of absence is possible only if the absence is documented. Acceptable reasons for absence are your own illness, illness of a child under 10 years of age, carrying out of a public position of trust or an employment-related reason, such as a job interview. If the absence due to your own illness lasts for more than 3 consecutive days of participation, you should submit a certificate from a doctor or nurse to Kela. Compensation for expenses is only paid for days of participation.
