

Are you 65 or older?

You can now see a private general practitioner at the price of a public one. This opportunity is provided as part of a pilot study on freedom of choice in health-care, which runs from 1 September 2025 to 31 December 2027.

During the pilot study,

- ✓ you can book an appointment with a private general practitioner if you fall ill
- ✓ you get faster access to treatment
- ✓ you can choose the right doctor for you
- ✓ you know how much you have to pay in advance
- ✓ you pay less for certain examinations and tests.

The pilot study does not cover

- ✗ appointments with a specialist
- ✗ health checks for example for age-related reasons or to get a medical certificate for your driver's licence
- ✗ services provided by a nurse.

More information about how to book an appointment and how much examinations and tests cost is available at www.kela.fi/freedom-of-choice-pilot.
